Read:—

Letter no 964 of 19th February 1892, from the Dy Comm., Bangalore Dist, reporting that the pujari of the Gangadhareshwaraswami temple at Gavipura, Bangalore Taluk, was living in a hut built inside the temple walls, and that he directed him to move out of the temple.

No. Ma. 501—8, Dt 24th February 1892

Ordered thereon.— The action of the Deputy Commissioner has the approval of the Dewan

2. It has been brought to the notice of the Govt that the marginally noted temples at Bangalore are partly occupied by the respective pujaris of others. The practice of allowing temple servants to live within the precincts of temple is most objectionable and must be at once put a stop to.
